ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF.

No. 263.—DETAILED FOR DUTY.

Captain R. M. Cook, A.M.C., C.E.F., is detailed to perform the duties, temporarily, of Deputy Assistant Director of Medical Services (Administration), Military District No. 13, from the 16th August, 1917.

(H.Q. 372-13-134.)

No. 264.—COMMISSIONS IN THE INDIAN ARMY.

The following extracts from copies of Memoranda received from the Under-Secretary of State, Colonial Office, relating to

- 1.—The selection of Candidates for permanent Commissions in the Indian Army.
- 2.—Appointments to the Indian Army Reserve of Officers, for the period of the war, are published for the information of all concerned.

APPOINTMENTS TO THE INDIAN ARMY OF OFFICERS HOLDING COMMISSIONS IN THE SPECIAL RESERVE, THE NEW ARMIES, OR THE TERRITORIAL FORCE.

Sanction has been given to the selection of a limited number of officers belonging to the Special Reserve, the New Armies or the Territorial Force, for the grant of permanent commissions in the Indian Army, subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) Candidates must not have been more than 26 years of age on the date on which they were called to army service as commissioned officers.
- (2) All embodied commissioned service from the outbreak of war will count for promotion and pension. Service as Warrant Officer and one half service in lower ranks will count for pension under the general rule, but will not count for promotion.
- (3) No service rendered before the war will count for promotion or pension unless it was in a regular unit.
- (4) Applicants will join the Indian Army in the rank to which their length of service would entitle them under Indian Army rules of promotion, any higher rank being surrendered.
- (5) Applicants must be unmarried.
- (6) For the first year of service with Indian troops the selected officers will be on probation, and if found unsuitable will be reverted to their original corps. While on probation with Indian units they will receive Indian Army rates of pay. During the period of probation the officers will not be allowed to subscribe for the benefits of the Indian Military Widows' and Orphans' Fund, but it will be compulsory on them to do so with effect from the date of permanent admission into the Indian Army, that is, after the expiration of their period of probation.
- (7) Applicants who are in this country will be medically examined by the India Office Board before being accepted as probationers.

Applications must be made to the War Office through the usual official channels. No candidate can be accepted unless he is recommended by his Commanding Officer as in every way suitable.

INDIA OFFICE,
August, 1916.

APPOINTMENTS TO THE INDIAN ARMY RESERVE OF OFFICERS OF CANDIDATES OUT OF INDIA.

In supersession of previous rules it has been decided to select a certain number of candidates from the British Service for appointment to the Indian Army Reserve of Officers, for service with native Indian troops for the period of the war, on the following terms:—

- (1) Age.—Applicants must be officers who were not more than 26 years of age at the date when they were called to Army service as commissioned officers, or non-commissioned officers and men who are certified by their commanding officers to be in all respects suitable for the grant of commissions. The latter, if approved, will be given commissions as Second Lieutenants on the General List (British Service).

INDIA OFFICE,
August, 1916.

APPOINTMENTS TO THE INDIAN ARMY RESERVE OF OFFICERS OF CANDIDATES OUT OF INDIA—Concluded.

(2) Medical Examinations.—Selected candidates must be passed by a Medical Board as physically fit for Indian Service.

(3) Outfit Allowance and Pay on the Voyage.—They will be granted an outfit allowance of £20, and provided with free passages to India. For the period of the voyage they will be granted the British pay of their rank.

(4) Probation.—After arrival in India they will be attached to Indian units for duty as probationers for the Indian Army Reserve of Officers, and will receive the rate of pay admissible in India to officers of the British Service, according to the arm of the service to which they are posted. This probation will ordinarily last for six months, and if at the end of that time an officer is reported to be unsuitable for service with Indian troops he will be replaced at the disposal of the War Office, and may be utilized as a reinforcement to a British unit in India, or sent back to Europe. In the latter case he will be provided with passage at Government expense. An unsuitable officer may also be returned at any time before the expiration of the six months.

(5) Rank.—Candidates will be posted to Indian units in the rank to which their length of service entitles them under Indian Army rules, any higher rank being surrendered; but accelerated promotion may be granted to officers who are specially recommended for such promotion.

(6) Pay on Admission to Indian Army Reserve of Officers.—On the termination of the period of probation candidates who are favourably reported on will be admitted to the Indian Army Reserve of Officers and will be granted Indian Army rates of pay and staff pay from that date.

(7) Wound and Disability Pensions and Gratuities.—Officers on probation, and those who have been admitted to the Indian Army Reserve, will be eligible for wound gratuities and wound pensions as laid down in the Royal Warrant for the pay of the Army.

If unfit for further service on account of disability due to, or aggravated by, military service, they will be eligible for the disability gratuities and pensions laid down in the Warrant of 26th November, 1915.

(8) Furlough and Leave.—Officers granted sick leave during their period of probation will receive leave pay at rates admissible to officers of the British Service. After admission to the Indian Army Reserve of Officers their leave pay will be at the special rates laid down for the Indian Army Reserve of Officers.

(9) Family Pensions and Gratuities.—The widows and children of officers of the Indian Army Reserve of Officers killed in action or dying of wounds received in action will be granted pensions and gratuities, and the widows and children of those dying of disease contracted on campaign service will be granted pensions, at the rates laid down in the Royal Warrants on the subject for widows and children of officers of the Regular Army.

Dependent relatives of officers who do not leave either a widow or child will also be eligible for Royal Warrant pensions.

Officers of the Indian Army Reserve of Officers will not be permitted to subscribe for the benefits of the Indian Military Widows' and Orphans' Fund.
