At the conclusion of the Victory Loan Campaign in 1919 the committee in charge of district No. 7 had a fund in hand from commissions on the sale of Bonds amounting to $588.00. This amount the committee decided to use as a nucleus of a Fund for the erection of a suitable memorial to the brave boys from district No. 7 who had given their lives in the "Great War".

Accordingly in June 1919, a public meeting of the inhabitants of the district was convened in the Presbyterian Church in Pugwash. This meeting was largely attended and was addressed by Col. C. E. Bent and Col. J. L. Ralston.

After hearing the views of those present, it was finally and unanimously decided that the suggestion of the Victory Loan Committee be adopted and commended.

It was then decided by resolution that the same committee be re-appointed to carry out the erection of a suitable monument of a granite base with a bronze figure.

The following committee was then appointed :— D. Mackintosh, M.D., R. L. McDonald, H. F. Elliott, J. L. McDonald, G. N. Allan, S. P. Borden, F. R. Dakin, Rev. Mr. Millar, Rev. Mr. Whitman and Rev. Mr. Lund.

It was further resolved that full power be granted this committee to decide upon a design for the monument to select a site for same and to collect subscriptions for the fund.

This committee subsequently met and appointed D. Mackintosh, M.D. chairman and H. F. Elliott, Secretary of the committee.

They also appointed Col. C. E. Bent, J. L. McDonald and F. R. Dakin a committee to look over and report on different sites for the monument. Dr. Mackintosh was appointed to solicit subscriptions.

The committee on sites, later reported verbally, in favor of a site on the James Black lot, now in possession of the Dominion Coal Co., one in the Cemetery, or one on the school house grounds. The last two sites were not considered by the main committee. The following committee was appointed to interview Mr Stewart of the Dominion Coal Co. at Springhill to ascertain if the Black lot was obtainable,—R. L. McDonald, Dr.

Mackintosh, C. E. Bent and G. N. Allan. (F. R. Dakin acted for C. E. Bent on this committee).

After visiting Springhill the committee found that said site was not available. Later the main committee selected and eventually bought, at a price of eight hundred dollars, the old, W. H. Brown Corner lot, where the monument now stands.

At the time of starting the subscription book on its rounds, it was felt by some members of the committee that unless the committee itself, and the village subscribed generously, (to an extent of at least fifteen hundred dollars) it would be useless to go further, if the idea of the erection of a suitable and creditable memorial was to be accomplished.

Consequently an effective effort was made at that time to make the subscriptions in the village, as large as possible, with the gratifying result shown by the list.

Dr. Mackintosh having reported encouraging response to subscriptions it was decided to go on with the monument.

At this meeting the Chairman and Secretary were instructed to correspond with different firms, asking for designs and tenders.

This was done, and finally contracts were awarded to David Sharp of the Colonial Granite Works at New Glasgow for the pedestal and to The S. F. McCann & Sons Co. of Boston for the Bronze Statue.

The committee then went on with the purchase and grading of the lot and the completion of the monument.

Subsequently the committee decided to have a fence built around the lot and on the suggestion of the chairman (Dr. Mackintosh) with the approval of the Secretary (H. F. Elliott) R. L. McDonald was requested to over-see the erection of a suitable fence. The present fence was then erected at the smallest cost possible to the committee. Mr McDonald furnishing the stones, for the pipe posts free of charge to the committee. committee.

After the erection of the monument the unveiling took place on July 1st., 1922.

The following program was carried out in the presence of a vast concourse of people from all parts of the County.

Program

1. Procession of veterans of the "Great War" and school children bearing bouquets of flowers, was lead by Col. C. E. Bent mounted on his Russian charger and by the Pugwash Band.
2. Remarks by Chairman.

At the close up meeting of the Victory Loan campaign in 1919 the committee in charge had on hand for commissions the sum of $588.00.

They agreed to make this sum the nucleus of a fund for erecting a suitable monument to the brave boys who fell in the late war.

This amount was subsequently added to by the sum of $100.00 contributed by the ladies of the Patriotic League.

To carry this scheme into effect a public meeting was called. Col. Bent and Col. Ralston were present at this meeting and gave stirring addresses in sympathy with the object of the meeting.

After a liberal discussion the meeting unanimously endorsed the Victory Loan Committee and reappointed them as a Soldiers Memorial Committee, with full power to select a design, secure a site, receive subscriptions and carry out the details of the work. This they have endeavored to do to the best of their judgment and ability with the result that we have here before us a Memorial costing with site and equipment in the vicinity of $5,000.00.

Let us say that our appeal to the citizens of Pugwash and surrounding district and also to former residents now living abroad, was met with a splendid response, and I want to take this opportunity of thanking those subscribers for their spontaneous assistance and generous sympathy.

It is our intention according as funds are available, to convert this plot into a "Memorial Park", which at the time we took it over, was a howling wilderness and a veritable eyesore. The park will be laid out with walks and seats in harmony with the objects of the Memorial, limited only by the amount of funds at our disposal.
