No ballot paper shall be rejected for uncertainty as to the candidate intended to be voted for if it is possible to ascertain by mere examination of such ballot paper for whom the active service voter intended to vote; nor shall any ballot be rejected as containing a possible identifying mark unless such mark is obviously intended as such.

(2) Immediately after the counting of the votes has been completed the presiding officer in the presence of the poll clerk and the representatives of the opposed political interests shall enclose in the ballot box the poll book with the statement required to be completed by subsection (1) hereof, together with the list of voters used by him and in a separate envelope or parcel the ballot papers used and also in a separate envelope or parcel the unused ballot papers and he shall endorse each envelope or parcel so as to indicate its contents.

22. (1) The special returning officer shall immediately on receipt of the statement by the presiding officer of the number of votes cast for each candidate communicate the same by telegram to the returning officer for the district in which such candidate has been nominated and the returning officer shall proceed to count the votes cast for such candidate in the usual manner under the Nova Scotia Elections Act.

(2) The special returning officer shall immediately on receipt of the ballot box separate the ballot papers cast for each candidate and forward the same to the returning officer for the district in which such candidate has been nominated.

PART II

Extra-Provincial Active Service Voting

23. Every extra-provincial active service voter may vote by proxy as hereinafter provided.

24. (1) Every extra-provincial active service voter may appoint in writing in the prescribed form a proxy of the full age of twenty-one years and entitled to vote in the electoral district in which the extra-provincial active service voter is entitled to vote.

(2) Any person may hold any number of appointments for extra-provincial active service voters who are within the degree of relationship to him of wife, husband, sister, brother, parent or child but no person shall hold an appointment for more than one extra-provincial active service voter who is not within such degree of relationship.

25. The Provincial Secretary shall as soon as may be after the issue of a writ for any election request the appropriate naval, military or airforce officers to provide him with a list of all persons, ordinarily resident in Nova Scotia and entitled to vote at an election as provided by these Regulations, with their addresses and the name of their immediate commanding officer. Upon receipt of such list the Provincial Secretary shall thereupon forward to such person a form of proxy, as prescribed in Form No. 8, with instructions as to its use and the proper manner of execution.

26. Any extra-provincial active service voter may obtain from the Provincial Secretary an appointment form as prescribed and, subject to the provisions of this Part, shall forward the completed form to the person appointed to act as his proxy.

27. (1) A person who has been appointed a proxy may apply to the Revising Officer at the sittings held for the revision of the lists in accordance with the provisions of The Provincial Electoral Franchise Act, 1945 in the electoral district in which the extra-provincial active service voter is entitled to vote, to be entered upon such list.

(2) Where a person appointed a proxy by an extra-provincial active service voter has received the proxy form subsequent to the sittings, the Revising Officer shall, upon being satisfied as to the date of the receipt of the proxy and the right of the person so appointed a proxy to vote, enter his name upon the list for the appropriate polling district; and, if the lists have been printed and certified to by him, he shall certify the form of proxy entitling him to vote as such proxy and the official list of voters, shall for all purposes be taken to have been amended in accordance with such certificate. The Revising Officer shall, at the same time, send a certificate to the Presiding Officer concerned that he has entered the name of the proxy on the list of voters and a like certificate to each of the candidates officially nominated, or their representatives at the polling station at which such extra-provincial active service voter is entitled to vote.

28. The Revising Officer shall take evidence on oath as to the right of the extra-provincial active service voter to vote in the electoral district upon the list of which his name is entered and as to the qualifications of the proxy, and if he finds that the extra-provincial active service voter is duly qualified and that the proxy is qualified to act for him, he shall endorse a certificate across the face of the appointment to that effect in the prescribed form, and shall cause the name of the proxy to be entered on the voter's list after the name of the extra-provincial active service voter.

29. A ballot paper shall not be delivered to a person who claims to vote as proxy unless he produces his appointment as a proxy to the presiding officer with the certificate of the revising officer thereon, as provided in section 28, and, if required, takes the oath in the prescribed form—No. 9.

30. The presiding officer shall record in the poll book provided for that purpose in the form set forth therein, the fact that the extra-provincial active service voter voted by proxy, showing the name of the proxy, and shall file the appointment and certificate with the election papers and return them to the returning officer in the envelope provided for that purpose.

31. A person who has been appointed as a proxy shall be entitled to vote in his own right in the electoral district notwithstanding that he has voted as a proxy for an extra-provincial active service voter.

32. (1) Every person who,—

(a) having appointed any person to act as his proxy, attempts to vote at an election otherwise than by means of such proxy while the appointment of such proxy is in force; or

(b) votes or attempts to vote at any election under the authority of an appointment as a proxy when he knows or has reasonable grounds for supposing that such appointment has been cancelled or that the voter by whom the appointment has been made is no longer entitled to vote, shall be guilty of an illegal practice within the meaning of The Nova Scotia Elections Act and shall incur a penalty of $200, and shall be imprisoned for six months.

33. (1) The powers contained in an appointment of a proxy under this Part shall terminate upon the casting of the vote by the proxy, provided however that the extra-provincial active service voter may at any time thereafter appoint a proxy under the provisions for any subsequent election to the Assembly;

(2) Where a person who has appointed a proxy under this section ceases to be a member of the Forces or where such person cancels such appointment in writing the appointment of such proxy shall be null and void and shall not be used.

34. Except as otherwise provided by Chapter 14 of the Acts of 1945, the provisions of The Nova Scotia Elections Act and The Provincial Electoral Franchise Act, 1945 shall mutatis mutandis apply to these Regulations and the voting thereunder.

PART III
