D.P.21.

NOTES: READ CAREFULLY.

1. This certificate is the property of the Minister of Labour and National Service and should be returned to the office named overleaf immediately it ceases to be current. In the event of the holder being no longer eligible for registration it would be appreciated if the Local Office were informed.

2. If a change of name or address occurs during the currency of this certificate, it should be sent, with full particulars of the change, to the office named overleaf.

3. This certificate should be signed in the space provided overleaf by the person to whom it relates.

4. An employer or prospective employer may request this certificate to be produced for inspection.

5. Care should be taken not to lose or deface this certificate. If so desired it may be deposited for safe custody with a local office of the Ministry. In the event of loss or defacement, application for a duplicate should be made to the office named overleaf.

6. If a 1914-18 disablement pensioner ceases to be such, he may make application not later than two months from the date of so ceasing, for the retention of his name in the register of disabled persons. It is requested that any such application be made as early as possible.

7. In cases other than those of 1914-18 disablement pensioners application for the retention of the person's name in the register of disabled persons may be made not earlier than two months before the date of expiry of the period of registration. It is requested that any such application be made as early as possible within that period and at least one month before the date of expiry of the period of registration.
