Dear Mr & Mrs. Elton. I received your most welcome letter and awful glad to hear from you I wish Mr Elton would practice more with his typewriter as I like to hear the news from my old home town. I have left the Infantry and a mounted man now. awful proud of it at that. Well I leave for 8 day leave in the morning going to Edinburgh. Let's take Lizzie and go I'll write you from there please excuse cards & writing, as am no good pushing a pen. new best Regards to Boy, glad to know what is at the machine hell beat his Dad's machine
