

At Duty's Call.

THE 25th Canadian Battalion of the FIFTH BRIGADE,
SANDLING CAMP,
KENT, ENGLAND.

At Duty's Call.

“ I'm Thinking of YOU Everyday.”

A Soldier's Letter.

I haven't had time to sit down and write,
And thought perhaps you might pine ;
So I send you this card just to say I'm alright,
And getting along “ real fine.”
When the Empire's Call for more men to fight,
For her Honour—in me caused a thrill ;
I felt I must or else I should “ bust,”
So I'm at Sandling Camp—hard at drill.
The work it is stiff, we're “ at it ” all day,
And sometimes half of the night ;
But we're hardening to it and getting quite fit,
And thank goodness for “ Boots ” we're alright.
My duty calls me as you very well know,
To the Front where the fightin' is done ;
And when 25th Battn, get grip on the foe
There's no letting go till they've won.
So cheer up, my dear, tho' parted we are.
And though I'm so far away ;
My loved ones are ever first in my thoughts,
I'm thinking of YOU everyday.
From The tin Soldier... “Fit and Ready.”

East - Sandling
thanks very much for the papers
you sent very pleased to get them I did not know who was sending them until last night I had a letter from home saying you had sent me some
& I got them all right.

Best Regards to all
John.
