

26th Battalion—Second Canadian Expeditionary Force—Col. J. L. McAvity

Strength 1,115 men. Recruited inside of the brief time limit with hundreds of men to spare. One of the best body of troops in the Empire, embracing the rich, the poor, the laborer, the banker—all classes, all creeds. Every man a New Brunswicker, and New Brunswick is the second smallest province in the Canadian federation

~~On the next morning~~ in the

Dear Aunt, ^{Union?} ~~she~~ turned with ~~dropped~~ ^{to be a man} line sending they sent her ^{women's clothes}
a picture of ^{was a lady} ~~was a lady~~
it looks like ^{she} ~~she~~

POST CARD

THIS SPACE FOR CORRESPONDENCE

THIS SPACE FOR ADDRESS

We are still here
having a ^{very} ~~very~~
the last of the week
this is part of our Battalion I am not
in it, Dadie B. is pretty long they dont
expect her to last
long they caught
a woman last Sat.
for waving and cheering flag
the woman and ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~man~~ ^{man} ~~flag~~ ^{flag}

Mrs Ada Glou
Upper Park
York Co
N B

1548