CARD

Dear May,
Did you get my other cards? very much afraid you didn't. George Hedley was asking after everybody and showed me a letter you wrote to him. He is quartered in a stinking old brickbattery, and is doing some office work. J. Henderson is not far from our camp here.
