GENERAL ORDERS

HEADQUARTERS,

OTTAWA, February 1st, 1917.

MEDALS AND DECORATIONS

CANADIAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE.

Extract from THE FOURTH SUPPLEMENT TO THE LONDON GAZETTE of Tuesday, the 24th of October, 1916, Thursday, 26th October, 1916.

WAR OFFICE, 26th October, 1916.

to the undermentioned Men:—

HIS Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to award the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Men:—

VICTORIA CROSS.

Regi- mental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
73132....	Private (acting- corporal).	Clarke, Leo, Canadian Infantry...	For most conspicuous bravery. He was detailed with his section of bombers to clear the continuation of a newly-captured trench and cover the construction of a "block." After most of his party had become casualties, he was building a "block" when about twenty of the enemy with two officers counter-attacked. He boldly advanced against them, emptied his revolver into them and afterwards two enemy rifles which he picked up in the trench. One of the officers then attacked him with the bayonet, wounding him in the leg, but he shot him dead. The enemy then ran away, pursued by Acting Corporal Clarke, who shot four more and captured a fifth. Later, he was ordered to dressing-station, but returned next day to duty.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
101465...	Private.....	Kerr, John Chipman, Canadian Infantry.	For most conspicuous bravery. During a bombing attack he was acting as bayonet man, and, knowing that bombs were running short, he ran along the parapets under heavy fire until he was in close contact with the enemy, when he opened fire on them at point-blank range, and inflicted heavy loss. The enemy, thinking they were surrounded surrendered. Sixty-two prisoners were taken and two hundred and fifty yards of enemy trench captured. Before carrying out this very plucky act one of Private Kerr's fingers had been blown off by a bomb. Later, with two other men, he escorted back the prisoners under fire, and then returned to report himself for duty before having his wound dressed.

Extract from THE SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO THE LONDON GAZETTE of Friday, the 18th August, 1916, Saturday, 19th August, 1916.

WAR OFFICE, 19th August, 1916.

HIS Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to confer the Military Cross on the undermentioned Warrant Officers, in recognition of their gallantry and devotion to duty in the field:—

MILITARY CROSS.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
1186....	Company Sergeant Major (Acting R. S. M.)	Anderson, John, Canadian Infantry	For conspicuous and consistent gallantry. He was severely wounded, but rejoined as soon as possible, and continued to do excellent work, and set a fine example. He has now lost his leg.

106128...	Sergeant Major (now temp. Lt.)	Casey, Charles Frederick, Canadian Mounted Rifles.	For conspicuous and consistent good work. By his coolness and devotion to duty during several bombardments he has set a fine example to all under him.
1.....	Battery Sergeant-Major.	Gabbutt, Harry, Canadian Artillery.	For conspicuous gallantry when directing the ammunition supply to the guns, constantly under very heavy shell fire. He displayed great coolness and set a fine example.
63395....	Company Sergeant-Major.	Geary, George Edward, Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous and consistent gallantry when in charge of battalion bombers and when leading patrols. On one occasion he took up a position 25 yards in front of our trenches in order the better to knock out the enemy, and succeeded in doing so although himself wounded.
67863....	Company Sergeant-Major.	Hinchcliffe, Frank W., Canadian Artillery.	For conspicuous and consistent gallantry and good work in the presence of the enemy. He has set a fine example.
37475....	Sergeant-Major....	Houghton, Charles James, Canadian Field Artillery, Divisional Ammunition Column.	For conspicuous and consistent good work in connection with the parks of the Canadian Forces.
20278....	Sergeant-Major....	Stuart, Duncan, Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous and consistent gallantry, notably on one occasion when he went out under heavy fire to the assistance of a wiring party who were reported to be suffering heavily from the enemy's fire.

WAR OFFICE, 20th October, 1916.

HIS Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Non-commissioned Officers for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty on the field.

DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

Regi- mental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
458089...	Lance-Corporal...	Kelly, J. J., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry. Though wounded early in a heavy bombardment he stuck to his post. When the enemy attacked, his cool and fearless handling of his section was largely responsible for their repulse.
457971...	Sergeant.....	McDowell, C., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry. When two of the enemy penetrated his trench he immediately attacked them, and though wounded by one of them with a pistol shot, succeeded in bayonetting him, and then killed the two with a bomb.
76165....	Sergeant.....	McLeod, D., Canadian Engineers.	For conspicuous gallantry during a bombardment, when he rescued a wounded man from a crater under heavy machine-gun and shell fire. By his faithful work and devotion, Sergeant McLeod was to a great extent responsible for the recovery of a deep enemy gallery, which enabled a position to be successfully held.
73546....	Sergeant.....	O'Brien, D., Canadian Engineers.	For conspicuous gallantry during a bombardment, when he rescued a wounded man from a crater under heavy machine-gun and shell fire. By his faithful work and devotion, Sergeant O'Brien was to a great extent responsible for the recovery of a deep enemy gallery, which enabled a position to be successfully held.

General Orders (Medals and Decorations)—continued.Extract from THE SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO THE LONDON GAZETTE of Tuesday the 14th November, 1916.

WAR OFFICE, 14th November, 1916.

HIS Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Warrant Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty in the field.

DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

Regi- mental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
24576....	Company Sergeant-Major.	Ser-Bullock, C. A., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He organised the ammunition supply and directed it to the whole of his sector. Later he led a reinforcing party to the left flank to help against an enemy attack. He displayed great courage and initiative throughout.

477770.... Acting Lance Cor-Reynolds, C., Royal Canadian poral. Regiment.

For conspicuous gallantry when leading a bombing party in a raid. After being wounded he continued to press forward, and threw his bombs with the greatest coolness and precision. He was the only man who reached the enemy parapet, where he fought alone with his revolver and bombs. He was again hit, and extricated himself with difficulty.

15820—3

44039.... Sergeant..... Stackhouse, J. C., Canadian Artil-

For conspicuous gallantry. When a shell had just been rammed home, he heard a noise, and realized that the fuse had become ignited. He instantly stopped the cartridge being put in, ordered the gun crew under cover depressed the gun as quickly as possible, and the explosion took place harmlessly. His promptness and pluck probably saved many casualties.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
53659....	Private.....	Burgess, R. H., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry and resource during operations. When, owing to casualties, the crews of some machine guns found themselves without escort, Private Burgess, although wounded, organised escorts of bombers, and assumed command until he was wounded seriously a second time.
8641....	Sergeant.....	Burns, G., Canadian Infantry.....	For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although wounded, he fought his machine gun with great courage and determination. Later he repulsed several enemy bombing attacks in their attempt to dislodge him.
61095....	Acting Corporal...	Casgrain, J. R., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. During five days he remained in charge of the dressing station and worked day and night for the wounded, and remained two days after the battalion had been relieved to see that the wounded were properly evacuated. He displayed great courage, and ability throughout.
55806....	Lance Corporal....	Cole, S. F., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry and ability in action. For two days Lance-Corporal Cole commanded his platoon, all the senior N.C.O.'s having become casualties, with exceptional courage and judgment, and in the final attack he led the company to the objective where he greatly assisted in the work of consolidation.
1242....	Private.....	Collins, R. S., Canadian Army Medical Corps.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty Private Collins, with the help of another man, proceeded under a heavy barrage, to the relief of the wounded in an abandoned trench, some of whom had been lying there for two days, and after dressing them all, carried them to a place of safety.

23117....	Sergeant.....	Crockett, P. H., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although wounded, he assumed command of his platoon, handling his men with great courage and initiative. He set a splendid example of coolness and ability throughout.
477230....	Private.....	Dawson, J., Royal Canadian Regiment.	For conspicuous bravery and devotion to duty in attending the wounded under very heavy fire. For a period exceeding 50 hours Private Dawson dressed and carried in wounded without cessation from the front line, and "No Man's Land", and before he collapsed he had attended to more than 100 cases. His courage and energy was worthy of the highest praise.
65276....	Sergeant.....	Donohoe, J., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led a party against the enemy with great courage and initiative. Later he established two bombing blocks and brought up a machine-gun, thereby repulsing an enemy counter-attack. He set a splendid example to his men.
24251....	Sergeant.....	Fraser, F. T., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although severely wounded, he held on to his position under intense fire, handling his men with great courage and initiative. He has on many previous occasions done fine work.
475852....	Lance-Corporal...	French, W. E., Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion during an attack. When a Lewis gun became inactive owing to the loss of its crew, Lance-Corporal French, although wounded, volunteered to put it into action. To enable him to do so it was necessary to hold him in position, and he was thus enabled to inflict serious damage on the enemy and to render great assistance to his comrades.
74039....	Private.....	Frost, F. G., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He tended the wounded under very heavy fire, displaying great courage and determination. He set a fine example.
61580....	Sergeant-Major....	Gauthier, O., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He remained for two days after the battalion had been relieved, tending and evacuating the wounded. He displayed great courage and ability throughout.

434772...	Private.....	Gwynn, R., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous bravery and devotion during operation, when he went out and dressed the wounded in the advanced posts, and afterwards superintended their removal. He continued in the performance of these duties for sixty hours without rest and in the open, and at all times under heavy fire.
72038....	Corporal.....	Hancock, A. P., Canadian Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He established his machine-gun close to the front line, and broke up enemy counter-attacks. Later, with a small party, he advanced on an enemy machine-gun which he had located, and captured the gun with great skill and determination.
57552....	Company Sergeant-Major.	Heather, C. L., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in an attack, when, by his coolness and bravery throughout, he greatly inspired the men of his company, and their success in attaining and holding the final objective was largely due to his noble example and personal influence.
75059....	Corporal.....	Holloway, J., Canadian Infantry...	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He with another man crawled out under fire and shot an officer and two men who were working an enemy machine-gun. Later, they rushed the gun, took four of the crew prisoners, and captured the gun.
67864....	Sergeant.....	Hulme, G., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He rushed by himself seven of the enemy, killing one of them and capturing the officer in charge and the remaining five men. Later, although severely wounded, he remained at his post. He displayed great courage and determination throughout.

73616....	Sergeant.....	Irwin, J., Canadian Infantry.....	For conspicuous gallantry in action. When his company officers had become casualties, he took command with great ability. Later he reconnoitred the front under very heavy fire, and then consolidated his position with marked skill and courage.
73103....	Sergeant.....	Laybourne, T. W., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although wounded, he led his platoon, and when volunteers for a hazardous attack were called for, he immediately volunteered and accompanied the party rendering great assistance.
65553....	Private.....	LeBoutillier, L. B., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He carried out a reconnaissance under very heavy fire, obtaining most valuable information. Later, he rescued a wounded man, and carried out several more daring reconnaissance also carrying bombs and ammunition to the front line. He displayed great courage and determination throughout.
73677....	Private.....	MacDonald, S., Canadian Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry in action. When the N.C.O.'s of his section had become casualties, he took command and carried on under heavy fire. Later, he again took command of his section and protected the flank of a battalion with great skill and determination until he was severely wounded.
63632....	Private.....	McMahon, E. J., Canadian Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although wounded, he stuck to his post. Later, he carried bombs to the front line and acted as a stretcher-bearer, displaying great courage and determination throughout.
80265....	Sergeant.....	Muncaster, J. W., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He led an advance party with great skill and determination. He greatly assisted the officer in charge of the various parties by his cool behaviour and good judgment.

A11085...	Lance-Corporal (Acting Corporal)	Neatby, A. F., Princess Patricia's 1) Canadian Light Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry and ability during an attack in handling Lewis guns. Isolated with his detachment from his company. Acting Corporal Neatby guided his men through unknown and heavy shelled country for nearly 1,000 yards, placed his guns in advanced shell holes, commanding the enemy's trench and ground behind, and remained there for twenty hours until the trench was finally taken.
53947....	Private.....	Nelson, J., Canadian Infantry.....	For conspicuous gallantry in action. When his officer and N.C.O. had been killed Private Nelson took charge of his Lewis gun sections, and skillfully placed the guns in position in advance of the captured line. He displayed great coolness and courage throughout the operations.
A36357..	Private.....	O'Grady, D., Canadian Infantry..	For conspicuous gallantry in action. When his officer, mortar and entire crew were buried, he dug the gun and team out, then placed the gun in action. He kept his gun in action for thirty-three hours, displaying great courage and determination.
418010...	Private.....	Owston, C. A., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He tended and rescued the wounded under very heavy fire, displaying great courage. Later, when the battalion was relieved, he remained behind to see that the wounded were more quickly evacuated.
68048....	Private.....	Parsons, C., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry in action. When carrying a despatch he encountered eleven of the enemy, killed two of them and captured the remainder. Later, although severely wounded, he continued to carry despatches. He showed great gallantry and initiative throughout.

79873....	Sergeant.....	Profit, J. A., Canadian Infantry....	For conspicuous gallantry and ability in action. A machine-gun officer was wounded and the command of a section devolved on Sergeant Profit. He displayed great bravery and executive ability, bringing all his guns safely out of action and capturing an enemy machine gun. He also showed coolness and courage in carrying wounded over 150 yards to safety under heavy shell fire.
75224....	Private.....	Pumphrey, P. A., Canadian In- fantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He, with another man, crawled out under fire and shot an officer and two men who were working an enemy machine gun. Later, they rushed the gun and took four of the crew prisoners and captured the gun.
18679....	Sergeant.....	Reynolds, C. H., Canadian In- fantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of his platoon and handled his men throughout with great courage and initiative.
418794...	Sergeant.....	Riddell, G. T., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. Although severely wounded, he handled his men with great courage and determination. Later, he rendered very valuable services by re-organizing the line. He set a fine example to his men.
67456....	Sergeant.....	Roberts, R., Canadian Infantry...	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He tended and rescued the wounded under very heavy fire, displaying great courage and determination.
8402.....	Company Ser- geant-Major.	Romans, C., Canadian Infantry...	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He dressed the wounded and personally supervised their evacuation under very heavy fire. He led his men with great courage and initiative, himself doing fine work as a bomb thrower. Later, he carried a message through very heavy barrage. He set a fine example to his men.

53610....	Lance-Sergeant....	Routley, C. E., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry and ability in action. After all his officers and senior N.C.O's. had been killed or wounded, Lance-Sergeant Routley took command of the company, organized the work of consolidating a captured position, and by his courage and example greatly inspired all with him in the performance of their duty.
55710....	Corporal.....	Smith, W. R., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although his right hand had been blown off by a shell, Corporal Smith went forward with a half platoon, and refused to leave his command until the consolidation of the line had been completed.
22539....	Company Sergeant-Major.	Spencer, F. V., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of two platoons and held a most important position for four days under very heavy fire. He has on many previous occasions done fine work.
254.....	Lance-Sergeant....	Stanborough, W., Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry during an attack when, without hesitation, and at great personal risk, Lance-Sergeant Stanborough rushed to the assistance of an officer who had suddenly come upon an enemy party, thereby capturing many prisoners and taking the enemy position without loss of life.
72986....	Private.....	Stevens, R. L., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. As a sniper, although severely wounded, he continued to fire at the enemy and accounted for five of them. Later, he charged with the assault, entered the enemy strong point, and single-handed captured six prisoners. He displayed great courage and determination throughout.

112135....	Acting Squadron Sergeant Major.	Sterrett, G. H., Canadian Cavalry Regiment.	For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He tended the wounded under very heavy fire, displaying great courage and determination. He set a fine example to his men.
1939....	Sergeant.....	Tooley, R. R., Canadian Cavalry Regiment.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He, when on patrol, rescued two wounded men under very heavy fire, displaying great courage and determination. Later, he went out dismounted and obtained valuable information.
8271....	Private.....	Warner, A., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He rescued wounded men under intense fire. On another occasion he carried in a machine gun whose team had become casualties. Later, he brought up bombs and ammunition through a heavy barrage. He displayed great courage and initiative throughout.
1783....	Sergeant.....	Wartman, A. E., Canadian Army Medical Corps.	For conspicuous bravery and devotion. When in charge of four bearer squads, Sergeant Wartman repeatedly went out and rescued many wounded men under severe shell-fire, and only desisted when he was himself severely wounded.
The undermentioned have been awarded a Bar to their Distinguished Conduct Medal for subsequent acts of conspicuous gallantry.
1220....	Private.....	Clark, G. F., Canadian Cavalry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He showed great determination and gallantry on patrols. Later, with a corporal, he captured an enemy officer and shot an enemy soldier. He displayed great courage and initiative throughout.
72087....	Sergeant.....	Haines, F. W., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He brought forward his guns and established them successfully under very heavy fire in support of front line. He then led a bombing party on an enemy machine gun with great courage and ability. It was owing to his splendid example and disregard of danger that all the machine guns were kept in action.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
71860....	Company Sergeant Major.	Patterson, T., Canadian Infantry	For conspicuous gallantry in action. Being the only company leader in the front line, he, by his courage and utter disregard of danger successfully inspired and organised the consolidating under most trying circumstances and intense artillery fire.
The awards of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the above mentioned were published in General Orders No. 90, 1916.
169014....	Sergeant.....	Jones, O. B., Canadian Infantry...	For conspicuous gallantry. He led a patrol up to the enemy's lines and remained out for twenty hours obtaining information. Before returning he bombed the enemy's trenches and a machine-gun position.
The award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal was published in General Order No. 104, 1916.

Extract from SECOND SUPPLEMENT TO THE LONDON GAZETTE of Tuesday, the 19th December, 1916, Thursday, 21st December, 1916.

WAR OFFICE, 21st December, 1916.

HIS Majesty the King has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the Distinguished Conduct Medal to the undermentioned Non-Commissioned Officers and Men, for acts of gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT MEDAL.

Regimental No.	Rank.	Name and Corps.	Remarks.
110134...	Sergeant.....	Dibblee, G., Canadian Mounted Rifles.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He assumed command of and led his platoon with great courage and determination. Later, although severely wounded, he remained at his post.
108311...	Private.....	Joblin, R., Canadian Mounted Rifles.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. With an N.C.O. he jumped on the parapet and bombed the enemy back, accounting for many with his revolver after his supply of bombs ran out, and saving the situation at a critical time.
73473....	Lance-Corporal...	Lawrence, M. E., Canadian Infantry.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. When a live shell, the fuse of which was burning, was left in his trench mortar he ordered the crew to leave, and, tipping the gun up, caught the shell as it fell out and threw it over the parapet, when it at once exploded.
532244...	Private (A.S.M.)	McAskill, J., Canadian Army Service Corps.	For conspicuous gallantry in action. He showed great courage and determination in extricating the transport of the field ambulance and in continuing to evacuate the wounded under intense artillery fire.
