..for your leisure

To Officers of H.M. and Civil Defence Forces we present the lighter (and brighter) side of London. Here is everything you may want to see and do . . . things that will help you recapture for a brief spell the glint and glamour of London as she really is, yes, and always will be—the greatest city in the world. The face of London may change—but never London's heart.

London Beneath the Surface

Come what may Bombs or no Bombs, Blitz or no Blitz, London still has its fun to offer when you're "off duty." Who would believe that you can STILL dance to the finest dance bands in the world STILL watch the cleverest cabarets STILL see the latest films and shows STILL go racing, skating, "dogging." Who indeed ?
Emphatically not that certain person with the funny moustache. Perhaps that's what riles him so

PICCADILLY

as your Club'

The Simpson Services Clubroom is available to all members of H.M. Forces in London. There you will find the usual club facilities plus a batman to do running repairs, and a bath and changing rooms.

The Services Department is on the First Floor, and has a complete stock of every item of equipment.

In the Restaurant and Snack Bar you can get good food and drink, and meet your friends.

You can order theatre tickets, and after a hair trim and shave pay a visit to our Portrait Studio—which offers a free sitting to all members of the Forces.

Sporting Records

FOOTBALL

The official record crowd at a football match is 149,547 at the England v. Scotland soccer game at Hampden Park, Glasgow, April 17, 1937. At the F.A. Cup final, Bolton Wanderers v. West Ham, April 28, 1923, 126,047 paid for admission and several thousands rushed the gates.

The New Zealand Rugby Football Team (1924-25) played 28 games in the United Kingdom, winning all.

In 1888-89 Preston North End won the League Championship without losing a match, and in the same season they won the Association Cup without having a goal scored against them. Bury also won the Cup in 1902-3 without having a goal scored against them.

Only two clubs have won the League Championship and the Association Cup in the same season: Preston North End in 1888-89, and Aston Villa in 1896-97.

The record score in the F.A. Cup is the 26 goals to love by which Preston North End beat Hyde at Preston, Oct. 15, 1887.

In the season 1927-28 Dixie Dean scored 60 goals in League matches, 19 in representative games and 3 in F.A. Cup ties.

BOXING

The longest fight with bare knuckles took place at Melbourne, Australia, between Jas. Kelly and Jonathan Smith, Nov. 1855, lasting 6 hrs. 15 mins.

The longest glove fight took place at New Orleans, April 6, 1893, between A. Bowen and J. Burke, lasting 7 hrs. 19 mins. 110 rounds were fought, the contest ending in a draw.

The shortest glove fight on record took place at Montreal, April 25, 1928, when Al Foreman knocked out Ruby Levine in 1½ secs. The shortest contest for the world's bantam-weight championship was between Terry McGovern (U.S.A.) and Pedler Palmer (London) at Tuckahoe, Sept. 12, 1899, when McGovern won in 2 mins. 32 secs.

Tom Sayers and J. C. Heenan fought at Farnborough, April 17, 1860, the match ending in a draw. Nat Langham was the only man to defeat Sayers.

SERVICE TO THE SERVICES

FOR over 30 years we at Bernard Weatherill's have enjoyed the confidence of officers in every branch of His Majesty's Services. Our reputation for the tailoring of uniforms is largely responsible for our distinguished and ever-increasing clientele.

Gentlemen who are requiring replacements of kit will be interested to know that Bernard Weatherill has made a particular study of military requirements. Moreover, his advice can be of great usefulness to those who are about to take commissions and are desirous of making their grants suffice for all their needs.

Apropos of breeches, those by Bernard Weatherill possess both style and comfort. There is plenty of stride; the knees are well formed; and the lines and run of seams are perfectly executed.

A few Smiles

Doris: "Did you tell anyone about your secret marriage?"

Gladys: "No, I'm waiting for my husband to sober up. I'd like him to be the first to know."

"Tommy, I heard that instead of going to Sunday School this morning you played football!"

"That isn't true—and I've got a string of fish to prove it!"

Some Scotsmen change their initials to L.M.S. to match the initials on their ash-trays and towels.

Then there was the wife who absolutely thought the world of her husband. She even believed the parrot taught him to swear.

Mrs. McSorter: "Say 'our.' I'm tired of hearing you talk about 'my house' and 'my car' and 'my daughter'." It gets my goat.

What are you looking for in that wardrobe?"

McSorter: "Our pants."

Get to know it.
You'll like it when you get it.
