

Examination. Captains.

Administration, Organization, Etc.

No. Marks.

1. 10. State clearly what you understand by "War outfit" and what it comprises.
2. 15. Pte. X enlists in the 10th Battalion. State clearly what documents are kept for Pte. X, what is contained in each document, and where each document is kept.
3. 20. State briefly and clearly how 1 round of ammunition leaving the base reaches you in the firing line.
4. 15. Give the composition of the following:
(a) The Division. (b) Mounted brigade.
5. 15. (a) What do you understand by "1st line transport", "train" and what is carried in each.
(b) State the composition of the above regarding your battalion.
6. 10. (a) Define the following terms: First reinforcement, Base, Railhead, Refilling point, Rendez-vous.
(b) Distinguish between administrative troops, administrative services.
7. 15. What is a regimental billeting party. State clearly what your action is from your arrival at the billeting locality until your unit arrives.

CAPTAINS EXAMINATION

ROYAL SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION LONDON?ONT.

MILITARY LAW

MARCH 1916

No. Marks.

1. 20

A recruit of the 142nd Overseas Battalion C.E.F. on attestation states that he has had no former Military Service and is sworn in. It is subsequently found that he has served three months with the 33rd Overseas Battalion C.E.F. and purchased his discharge

(1) Under what act and by what court will he be tried?

(2) What punishment might he receive?

2. 20

The prosecutor in the trial of Private Jones has already been sworn on the same day before the same court in the trial of Private Smith. Is it necessary to swear him again when he produces the statement of the character and particulars of service of Private Jones?

3. 20

What six essential points must be proven in order to convict a soldier charged with the offence of disobeying in such a manner as to show wilful defiance of authority, a lawful command given personally by his superior Officer in the execution of his office?

4. 20

Write charge sheets for the following offences:

- (a) A private soldier drunk in the city
- (b) A private soldier stealing from a Corporal.
- (c) A Sergeant striking an officer.

5. 20

What punishment would you consider adequate in the following cases tried by the man's Commanding Officer?

Private Jones convicted of

- (a) When a member of a fatigue party refusing to obey an order of the Sergeant in charge.
- (b) Leaving his guard for an hour without permission
- (c) Being drunk when paraded for guard mounting
- (d) Fifth drunk in ten months, last offence two weeks before.

Total marks on this paper 100

132

Reg R. 100

In B. R.

an. B. am. kut. 50

un. am. hol. 50

Ref p.

W. H. R. R.

112
152

Examination.

Captains.

TACTICS.

- | No. | Marks. |  |
|-----|--------|--|
| 1.  | 15     | (a) State the various uses of the local reserves in the attack and the defence.(b) In the attack, what are the formations of local reserves, what would affect those formations. |
| 2.  | 10     | Under what conditions can the gradual building up a firing line be gradually dispensed with.  |
| 3.  | 20     | (a) What are the duties of the company commander in the attack.(b) What principles will guide your action in the handling of supports in the attack.                             |
| 4.  | 15     | (a) Name in order of importance the chief points in the siting of fire trenches. (b) Name 3 types of shelters, their dimensions and what conditions they should fulfil.              |
| 5.  | 10     | What chief points are to be considered in deciding the number and position of piquets.   |
| 6.  | 15     | You are in command of an advanced guard, and have met the enemy suddenly; what principle would guide your action, stating reason. (You do not know the intention of your Commander). |
| 7.  | 15     | In what does a night advance differ from a night march, and what special instructions would you give your company for night advance.   |
| 8.  | 15     | An action in progress has not been decided by nightfall, the attack has arrived within close ranges (say 600 yards). State briefly how out-post duty might be carried out.           |

NOTE: Of the last two questions one only need be answered.

Total Marks 100.