NOTICE TO FARMERS AND BUTTER PRODUCERS

It is unlawful to make butter for your own use or for sale unless you have registered at a Local Ration Board.

You must send or deliver once a month to a Local Ration Board valid coupons for the butter used by your household. These butter coupons are to be detached from Ration Books in the possession of your household.

IF YOU SELL BUTTER

You must collect valid butter coupons or other butter ration documents for all butter sold. You must also keep track of all butter made, all butter you sell and all butter used in your home. This record must be ready for inspection by Wartime Prices and Trade Board inspectors at any time.

NOTE

Butter delivered on payment of any account owing by you, or traded at a store or elsewhere, or butter given away by you, is considered a SALE. Valid coupons or other butter ration documents for that amount of butter must be collected by you.
