

2.00
Patriotic March Song

SHE'S A DEAR OLD LADY

WORDS AND MUSIC

BY

ARTHUR OSTLER

PRICE 50 CENTS

THOMAS ANDERSON
MUSIC PUBLISHER
65 JAMES ST. N., HAMILTON, ONTARIO.

SHE'S A DEAR OLD LADY

Words and Music by ARTHUR OSTLER

March time

ff

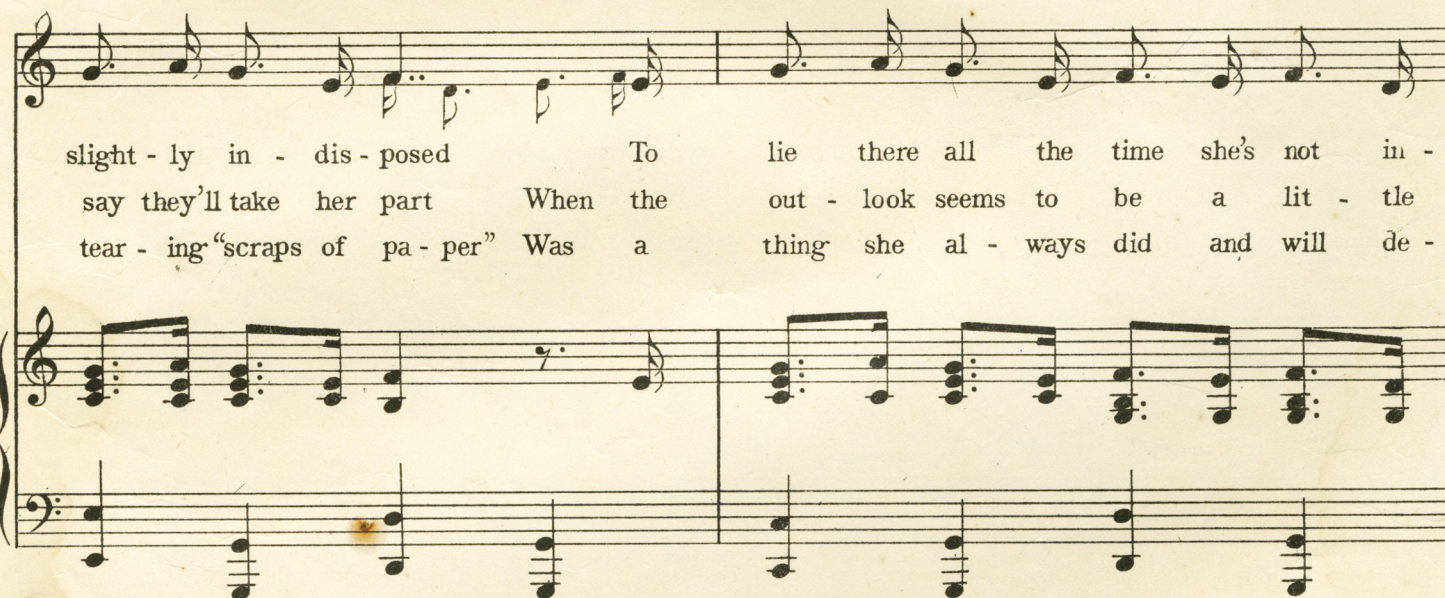

We have oft - en had the no - tion Ly - ing
She has ma - ny sons and daugh - ters Scat - tered
When the Ger - mans got in mo - tion Stir - ring right hand pp

cra - dled in the o - cean Old Great Brit - ain was a - sleep and in de - far a - cross the wa - ters And they love her, eve - ry - one, for its her up this great com - mo - tion Old Great Brit - ain thought 'twas time that she should cline But while we thought she dozed And was due. It cheers her dear old heart When they rise. She told them cut - ting ca - pers Such as slight - ly in - dis - posed To lie there all the time she's not in - say they'll take her part When the out - look seems to be a lit - tle tear - ing "scraps of pa - per" Was a thing she al - ways did and will de - clined She is ve - ry hard to wak - en And she blue. They are some - times rough and rea - dy But they spise. So she sent her sol - diers o - ver And her takes a deal o' shak-in' And her case, her fore-ign neigh-bors can't de-make her feel more stead-y When they take her arm and help her on her ships, they sailed from Dov-er Just to show the Huns she meant just what she fine. But when there's trou-ble brew-ing Why she's way You bet, she'll not for-get For she said. And when the war is done And they're al-ways up and do-ing And she's al-ways up for breakfast in the morn-ing. has her mem-ory yet She may ask them in for breakfast in the morn-ing. cut-ting up the bun She will sure be up for breakfast on that morn-ing.

CHORUS

Not too fast and marked

She's a dear old la - dy Is this mo - ther o' mine With her queer slow step, For she al - ways takes her time. She's as old as can be And she loves her cup o' tea But she's al - ways up for break - fast in the morn - ing.