

HOSPITALITY IN BRITAIN

For Sailors, Soldiers, Airmen, & Women in Auxiliary Services of all ranks from Overseas

THE EMPIRE SOCIETIES are ready at all times to help with information and suggestions for spending leave periods or hours off duty.

The Societies have connections in all parts of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. They can help you with advice on all leave problems and above all can arrange to put you in touch with the many people in this country who look forward to entertaining those from overseas in Clubs or in their homes.

The Societies which have formed this Joint Committee are . The Royal Empire Society ; The Overseas League ; The Victoria League ; The Dominion Officers' and Students' Hospitality Scheme (Lady Frances Ryder) ; London House ; The British Women's Hospitality Committee ; The British Empire League ; The British Empire Service League ; The East India Association ; The Royal African Society ; The League of the Empire ; The Empire Day Movement ; the School Empire-Tour Committee ; The West India Committee.

Headquarters :

Empire Societies' War Hospitality Committee at the Royal Empire Society, Northumberland
